BLACK IDENTIFIED AS HER ATTACKER BY LITTLE SCHOOL GIRL

NEGRO WAS SERVING SEN- TENCE ON CHAIN GANG NEAR THOMASVILLE

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Sept. 25.—(P)—Willie Kirkland, 20 year old negro convict, said to have been identified by a nine year old school girl as the man who attempted to attack her, was lynched here early today.

Kirkland, serving a sentence on the chain gang for horse stealing, was taken from Sheriff Gordon E. Davis and several deputies who were seeking to transfer him to a nearby town for safe keeping.

The men who seized the negro numbered between 50 and 75. Kirkland was hanged from the limb of a tree in Magnolia Gardens, a suburb, about a mile from the heart of Thomasville.

After hanging him, the men tied his body to the rear of a truck and drove to the city. They circled the public square and deposited the body finally on the court house lawn.

Kirkland was arrested yesterday along with five other negroes.

During the night it was said that Kirkland, in custody of officers, was taken from the jail to the home of the girl, who identified him. Shortly after daylight he was taken before the girl, who again said he was the one who attempted to attack her. It was after this second visit that officers sought to spirit him away but were balked by the mob.

Extra guards were placed around (Continued on Page Two).

PRISON OFFICIAL DENIES RICHARDS HAS SOFTEST JOB

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 25.—(P)—William C. McCraw, district attorney of Dallas county, is wrong about Ben Richards, former Dallas insurance man, having the "softest job in the penitentiary," T. N. Tension, assistant manager of the state prison, said today. Richards was sentenced to three years for forgery in connection with payment of a bet on the outcome of the race for United States senator between Earl S. Mayfield and Tom Connally two years ago. McCraw made his comment when shown a copy of the prison paper, "The Echo," carrying Richards' name as "advertising director." McCraw observed that the paper did not carry advertising. "When Richards arrived at the prison he worked several days in the wood squad," Tension said. "He later was transferred to the record office where he has been working from 13 to 14 hours each day, at one of the most difficult and most responsible jobs in the record department. Richards takes no active part in the prison publication whatsoever."

Two Canadian Provinces Have Snow Blankets

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 25.—(P)—The prairie province of Saskatchewan and Alberta, where a few weeks ago torrid temperatures prevailed, were covered in many sections today by snow. A wind that at times reached gale force, accompanied by rain and sleet, broke poles and snapped telegraph wires. Telegraph communication between Saskatchewan and Alberta was severed. Two inches of snow blanketed the current in Southwest Saskatchewan, and the town was without telephone, telegraph or power service. In other places an inch and more of snow fell. The coldest spot in the west was Grande Prairie, in North Alberta, with a temperature of 24 degrees above zero.

LEAD, S. D., Sept. 25.—(P)—Lead and the Northern Black Hills received the season's first snow last night. The snow was still falling this forenoon and the temperature at 8 a. m. was one degree below freezing.

Score One For Radio Realism; Tot is Victim

PRICE, Utah, Sept. 25.—(P)—An afternoon they had played Indian. So three-year-old Clarence Perry and Christy Metoas listened wide-eyed with excitement when the radio began presentation of an Indian battle, so realistic they could hear rifle shots. Christy's hand strayed to a pistol the boys had used at play. Pointing it at his tiny companion he pulled the trigger. Clarence fell, a bullet through his head. A coroner's jury held the shooting accidental.

TEXAS SENATOR SEES NINE CENT LOANS ON COTTON

SENATOR CONNALLY PLEAS- ED WITH RECEPTION OF TEXAS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(P)—Senator Connally, Democrat, Texas, said in a statement today he had received indications that Intermediate Credit Banks will discount loans secured by cotton to the extent of nine cents a pound. The Texas has been conferring with government officials for several days in conjunction with members of the Texas state drought relief committee. Connally also stated he had been informed by the manager of the cotton stabilization corporation at New Orleans that the corporation would withhold the 1,300,000 bales of cotton it now has from the market throughout the cotton season ending next July 31, unless the price in the meantime advances to or above the purchase price.

Senators Connally and Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, came to Washington with the West Texas delegation. Prior to his departure for Texas today, Connally issued this statement:

"The committee has been accorded an unusual reception by the farm board, farm loan board, the national reserve board, the secretary of agriculture and the drought relief committee."

AGED WOMAN INSISTS SHE WAS "HOUSED" INTO THE SHOOTING OF COMMISSIONER

ENID, Okla., Sept. 25.—(P)—In- sisting she was "tortured" and "housed" into shooting a United States commissioner, a woman attempting to wound a judge in district court here yesterday, Mrs. Dolly Douthitt, eccentric elderly widow, was held in jail today awaiting the outcome of her victim's injuries.

Angered when a civil suit was decided against her, Mrs. Douthitt shot and seriously wounded H. Z. Wedgwood, United States commissioner, who won the suit and sent a wild bullet at Judge Arthur Sutton, on the bench. Attorneys and bailiffs overpowered her.

Mrs. Douthitt, whose gunplay revived memories that she was acquitted of the slaying of her husband twenty-six years ago, told newspapermen she was "a volunteer in the penitentiary." Truly dressed, appearing younger than her sixty years, she shouted from her cell in the Garfield county jail last night.

"They tortured me into it; they housed me into it. For months they have been after my money. I have $35,000 or $40,000 they are trying to get."

"I am a Christian. I will not even kill a chicken. I don't know why I did it. I don't know why I wanted to kill."

Mrs. Douthitt added that she didn't feel "I have committed any crime."

"I'm not through with them yet," she cried. "I'll get out warrants and fight them to the last ditch."

She added "they harassed me until it broke my health and they forced me into court when I was too sick to come."

Long known to Enid townspeople for her peculiarities, her house shunned by youngsters as haunted, Mrs. Douthitt came to court to act as her own lawyer in a group of suits in which she was involved.

The case which led to the shooting grew out of her failure to pay for a roof on her house. The dwelling was attached and

BISHOP CANNON COMPLAINS ACTION OF ELDERS UNFAIR

SAYS SHOULD BE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO CONFER WITH ACCUSERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(P)—Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, complained today in a radio message of the action of elders of his own church filing charges against him while he was in Brazil on church work.

The message was sent to the Associated Press from the American Legion on which he is coming from Brazil.

These charges, while their content has not been made public, are understood to involve Bishop Cannon's stock speculation operations and political activities, as well as certain new charges.

They have been brought by the Rev. Dr. Forrest J. Probyman of Baltimore, Dr. J. T. Mastin and Dr. Costen J. Harrell of Richmond, and Dr. I. P. Partin of Abingdon, Va.

After detailing circumstances of his notification, while he was spending a honeymoon in Brazil with his former secretary, that new charges were to be filed against him, Bishop Cannon in his message said: "I shall protest the legality of the hurried and premature action taken before my arrival, making impossible conferences with me, which the disciplinary provision 'to carefully inquire' necessarily includes."

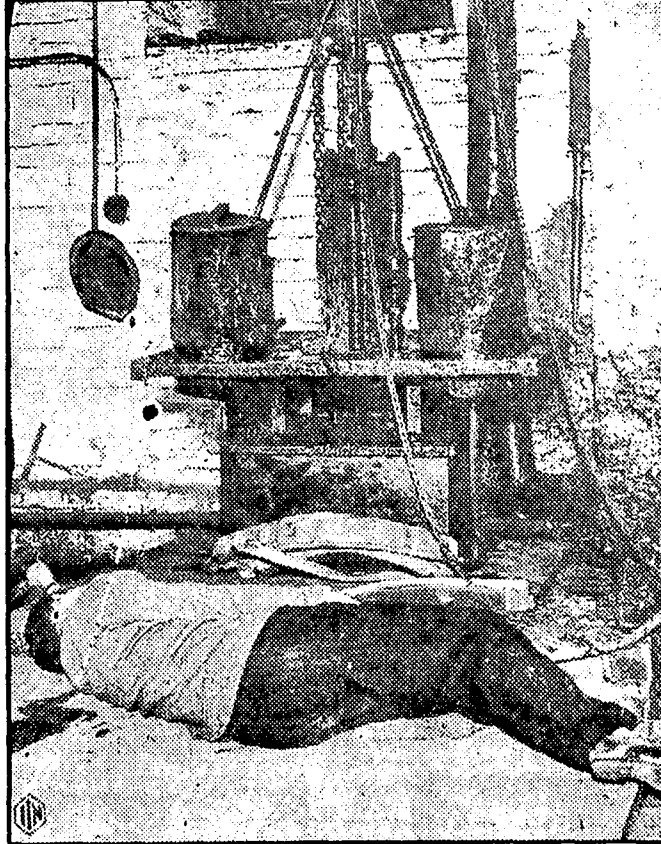

According to the bishop's message he was notified briefly by the four clergymen on Sept. 8 that they were inquiring into his case. He cabled immediately offering to meet his accusers in Washington after Oct. 2 and received an answer which refused his right to confer with them.

Friends took up the matter for him with the complaining elders but had no more success than he himself had, wherefore he boarded the first boat from Santos.

For the fifteenth position on the court, two other Latin Americans and a European were the candidates as balloting progressed in the afternoon without any decisive result.

The following were elevated on the first ballot in separate voting of both the assembly and the council: Frank B. Kellogg, United States; Antonio Sanchez de Bustamante, Cuba; J. Nominees for the fifteenth place on the world court were Francisco Jose Urrutia of Colombia, Miguel Cruchaga Tocoral of Chile and Aka Hammarskjold, of Sweden, with 27 votes necessary for election.

Urrutia finally was chosen by the assembly on its fifth ballot but the council's choice was Cruchaga. Either the Colombian or the Chilean will be elected to the bench this afternoon or tonight, and thereby Latin America will have three representatives on the court.

Finally Urrutia of Colombia was elected the fifteenth member of the world court, receiving the approval of both the assembly and the council.

Chicago Bandit Picks Wrong Man To Rob; Is Killed

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—(P)—A bandit just picked in John Ziegler the wrong man to rob. Ziegler slew him.

The desperado, identified from fingerprints as Washington P. Megarg, entered Ziegler's automobile at the point of a pistol and ordered Ziegler to drive ahead. Ziegler did; but when he had attained moderate speed he suddenly jammed on his brakes.

The bandit put his hands forward to prevent being thrown through the windshield. Ziegler grappled with him and wrestled the gun from him. As the man fled, Ziegler fired. Megarg was killed when police arrived.

SUMMARY DEATH IS METED OUT TO MEN FOLLOWING ARREST

POLICE BODY ALLEGED TO HAVE CONDUCTED TRIAL BEFORE EXECUTION

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—(P)—Forty-eight Russians who dared to oppose the Moscow soviet regime have paid with their lives for their opposition.

An official communique through Tass, soviet news agency, said that all members—numbering 48—of the counter-revolutionary society revealed Sept. 22, had been shot by the secret police after trial and conviction on charges of attempting to starve the population of the U. S. S. R., by destroying the food reserves of the country.

The domed men number Professor Alexander Ryazantsev and Eugene Karatymov, government officials, among them. All were described as "unreconcilable enemies of the soviet government and active counter revolutionists."

The secret police revealed discovery of the alleged counter-revolutionary society last Monday in a brief notice which said the men had been arrested. Their activities, it was charged, embraced the organization of the meat, fish, vegetable and other industries as well as the commissariat of trade and state planning institutions.

Professor Ryazantsev, former czarist general and chairman of the meats department of the soviet commissariat, was named as head of the organization, which included former noblemen, czarist officers, manufacturers and property owners. The secret police claimed that the society was initiated and subsidized by a British meat packing house.

Fort Worth Man Found Dying From Slashes of Knife

FORT WORTH, Sept. 25.—(P)—Homer Rogers, 35, died here early today of stab wounds without regaining sufficient consciousness to tell who slashed him with a knife last night and left him lying in a clump of bushes near Glen Garden Country club.

CLARA BOW AND WILL ROGERS BREAK SILENCE ON ALLEGED GAMBLING CHECK SITUATION

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—(P)—Clara Bow, blondes redhead, has broken a two-day's silence to answer assertions that she stopped payment on checks for $13,900 after offering them in payment of gambling losses at a Nevada hotel. The actress' statement read in part:

"While I was at Lake Tahoe, Mr. Will Rogers invited Rex Bell, my secretary Miss Devoy, and myself to dinner. I did not know the hotel was a gambling place until after we reached there. After we had dinner, Mr. Rogers went to one of the gambling tables and naturally we went with him. I began to play a little at a game called 'Twenty-one,' which they call there 'black jack.'"

"They gave me fifty cent pieces to play with, and I signed some checks in blank, telling the dealer to fill in the amount of the fifty-cent pieces he had given me. There were four checks."

"It now seems they claim these fifty cent pieces represented what they call $100 checks and they put enough in the checks to amount to that."

"When the checks reached my bank they called me and said the checks had a slip on them asking the bank to 'wire' face of these checks."

"This attracted the attention of my bankers and I found out for the first time this gambling house claimed I had lost and owed them nearly $14,000, so I told the bank not to pay the checks."

"If these people think they have an honest claim against me, I will gladly receive any legal document they serve on me, or they can present them to my attorney, Mr. W. I. Gilbert."

Reputation of the checks was called to the attention of E. P. Schulberg, Paramount studio official, by James McKay, owner of the hotel.

McKay said Will Rogers, film

GERMAN FASCIST LEADER TELLS OF PLANS FOR FUTURE

SENSATIONAL STATEMENTS MADE AT TRIAL ARMY OFFICERS FOR TREASON

LEIPSIK, Germany, Sept. 25.—(P)—Adolf Hitler, fascist generalissimo, today declared that just as soon as the German fascists by legal means have captured political power in Germany, they will tear asunder the treaty of Versailles if necessary by means looked upon by the world as illegal.

His sensational announcement of purpose was made at the trial of three Reichswehr officers to which he had been summoned as a witness.

"The nationalist socialists do not regard the international agreements as law but as something forced upon us," he said. "Germany is gagged by the peace treaties. We do not acknowledge our guilt in the war, especially not the guilt of future generations. Who shall rid us of these treaties by every possible means, shall find ourselves in the midst of revolution."

We shall oppose these treaties both during and after the war, by completely evading them. That may be looked upon by the world as an illegal method, but we will not employ it until the party has been victorious. After two or three more elections our party will be in majority."

"The nationalist socialist movement will pursue its aims within (Continued on Page 10.)"

GRUESOME DETAILS OF TORCH MURDER TOLD BY STANLEY

ALLEGED PARTICIPANT FT. WORTH MURDER MAKES WRITTEN CONFESSION

FORT WORTH, Sept. 25.—(P)—Gruesome details of the torch slaying of Roy Hawthorne, whose body was found burning in a pasture near Lake Worth after he was slain July 26 in the home of A. E. Stanley, were recounted last night in the Tarrant county jail by Herbert A. Stanley, 30, son of the man in whose home Hawthorne was killed.

Stanley made a written confession of his part in the slaying to Assistant District Attorney Morris, Sheriff Red Wright and D. S. Rains, jailer.

He admitted participating in the attack on Hawthorne but denied that he struck the blow that ended the life of the man who was said to have made the fatal trip to the Stanley home to deliver beer.

Stanley, under indictment for the murder of Hawthorne, along with the Elder Stanley, "Speck" Casselberry, H. D. "Pop" Tapp, Butler, was arrested in Oklahoma last week in connection with the robbery of the Commercial Bank at Alma, Ark. He was returned here yesterday from Van Horn, Ark.

I asked them to be my guests. The hotel is not solely a gambling house. A lot of divorcees stay over there in preference to Reno."

"I saw the wives of so many of my friends from back East that it was like old home week."

"I don't gamble much. Fifty or $75 is my limit. I don't suppose it's going to hurt my reputation much for people to know I've been in a gambling house. I couldn't have been much of a crowd without having seen a lot of gambling. I've been to Monte Carlo, too. I went over there to see what all those old women were doing bending over those tables."

"I wasn't gambling much while I was there. I saw her going around making a few bets, but she didn't appear to be betting much."

"But I don't like this idea of my riding to fame on the skirts of Clara Bow."

the jail during the night while a number of townspeople kept an all night vigil in front of the building. There was no attempt at violence then, however.

A posse estimated at 1,000 men was formed here soon after the attack on the girl was reported. Many of these in the posse were armed and they searched the swamps in the vicinity for several hours with the aid of dogs. The lurt was continued even after Kirkland was placed under arrest.

Doubt that Kirkland was the person who attacked the girl was said to have been expressed today by the warden of the convict camp. He was quoted as saying the negro did not leave the camp yesterday.

Reduced Rates Secured

"While in Washington I have conferred with the department of agriculture with reference to the matter of reduced freight rates in the drought area," Senator Connally said.

"At the meeting in Haskell I wired the secretary of agriculture urging the immediate placing into effect of the reduced rates. I was assured by wire that the rates in 38 counties in Texas would be reduced immediately.

The department now assures me that these rates have already been put into effect. The department informed me today that 19 additional Texas counties would be certified for inclusion in such areas.

I have strongly urged the inclusion of additional counties in the freight rate reduction. I have endeavored to induce the department to include all counties west of the Pecos river because of the necessity of either shipping feed into that territory or shipping some cattle out of that area. Today I am again taking the matter up with the department and am endeavoring to have other counties on the edge of the drought area included. The application for reduced rates in such areas is a voluntary matter with the railroads. They cannot be compelled to put such rates into effect. They have agreed, however, to accept certification by the secretary of agriculture, the secretary, in making report from crop reporting agencies in the particular territories.

"While in Washington I consulted Chairman Legge on the farm board and Commissioner Carl W. Hunt on the cotton situation. The intermediate credit banks have indicated that they will rediscount loans secured by cotton to the extent of nine cents a pound. Such loans will not be restricted to members of the cooperative societies. This should have a fine effect upon the market.

"The removal from the cotton market of all cotton held by the farm board to the stabilization corporation should also have substantial effect upon raising the market price. Last night the president and general manager of the Cotton Stabilization corporation at New Orleans, who now is in Washington and with whom I conferred, authorized the announcement that the present holdings of the corporation, amounting to 1,300,000 bales of cotton, will be maintained throughout the cotton season ending July 1, 1931, unless the price in the meantime advances to or above the purchase price. The maintenance of these

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 25.—(AP)—The bodies of Robert Jenkins, 15, of Huntsville, and Neil Warren, 16, of Verdenburg, Ala., who fled from the Alabama boys industrial school here last night, were found on the railroad tracks near Trussville today.

The bodies were badly mangled and identification was established by a representative of the industrial school by means of their clothing.

D. M. Weakly, head of the school said the youths were missed at meal time last night and a search for them had been started. He said they had resided in the "honorable building" where students were given special privileges for good behavior.

"Everyone knows that the price is now too low. These actions of the intermediate credit banks in the cotton stabilization corporation ought to have a splendid effect."

with his fist and did not intend to kill him. He said he took Hawthorne into the bathroom, washed the blood from his face and tried to talk to him, telling him he thought he was going to die and asking Hawthorne if there was anything he wanted Stanley to tell his family.

Stanley said another man came into the bathroom with a hammer on his hands and said, "Let me show you where to hit a man to kill him." He asserted the man struck Hawthorne behind the ear with the hammer.

Warning the other men to get a doctor or take Hawthorne to a hospital, Stanley said he went to get his car. When he brought it to the rear of the house, he said the other men told him Hawthorne was dead and they put the bundle in which they had wrapped the body into the car.

It was soon after this point in the narrative that Hawthorne's body was found burning, wrapped in a blanket, in a pasture near Lake Worth.

Charges Against Harlan Surprise

ARILENE, Sept. 25.—(AP)—O. P. Harlan, former banker and civic leader of Stamford, who has made $5000 bond at Lubbock on an indictment returned in the federal court at Dallas charging him with irregularities in the accounts of the Stamford Farm Loan association, today expressed complete surprise at the charges against him.

Harlan was secretary-treasurer of the Stamford association until his removal to Lubbock early this year. Attorneys here for Harlan said today: "In view of the fact that Mr. Harlan has made a complete financial settlement touching all the items which it was claimed he owed, and in view of the understanding on both sides that a satisfactory adjustment had been made, this indictment comes as a complete surprise. Feeling as we do that these charges against Mr. Harlan do not involve any moral turpitude on his part, we ask that his friends hold their opinions in abeyance until we have had opportunity to present his case.

The case is on call for Monday in the federal court here.

MICHIGAN YOUTH ADMITS BURGLARY M. L. MARKS HOME

A white boy, aged 17 years, living his home as Detroit, Mich., was arrested here Wednesday night by City Officer John Blair and Thursday made a statement to City Officer Bruce Nutt, admitting the burglary of the M. L. Marks home here, 2004 West Seventh avenue, Tuesday afternoon, and also admitting the burglary of a house belonging to Mr. Baumgartner in Mexia Wednesday, according to police officers.

The boy is said to have outlined his movements from the time that he arrived in Corsicana. He gained entrance to the Marks home by jumping a paint brush handle through the screen. He visited the ice box, later ransacking the house, and taking $1.70, and a number of pins and rings. Some of the rings had been sold.

According to the statement, the accused youth caught a train to Mexia Wednesday morning and Wednesday afternoon burglarized the Baumgartner house, securing two shirts, two suits of underwear, a Shriners' fez and two other caps, pillow cover, suit of clothes, watch, knife, shoes, etc., which were placed in a valuable handbag which was expressed to Corsicana, addressed to Harley Vinson. He stated he came back to Corsicana Wednesday afternoon.

A description of the accused youth and City Officer Blair arrested him Wednesday night. City officers later went to the express office and procured the loot which had been expressed here from Mexia.

The statement was made to Officer Nutt. The boy is still in the city jail, but later will be transferred to the county officers, and it is expected that the grand jury will investigate the case when it convenes Oct. 6. It is feared that the youth will be turned over to Lime-stone county officers for the Baumgartner burglary, it was stated.

NEGRO ARRESTED BY CITY OFFICER HAD TWO PISTOLS

A negro, giving his home as Columbus, Texas, was arrested on the Barry road Thursday morning by City Officer Ruf Tickle and two pistols, a kodak and a pair of ladies gloves were taken off him. While the search was in progress, the negro reached for the second pistol hidden in his shirt, but Tickle was too quick for him.

The negro was brought to the city jail, and was finger-printed and mugged Thursday afternoon. City officers learned that the negro had sold an expensive kodak for 80 cents Thursday morning, and Tickle went after him.

As soon as the city police department has completed its investigation of the negro, he will be turned over to the county officers, Bruce Nutt, officer in charge stated Thursday afternoon.

One of the pistols was a .38 calibre shooter and the other was a .32 calibre automatic.

HONEY GROVE FIRE THREATENED TOWN; LOSS IS $100,000

HONEY GROVE, Sept. 23.—(P)—Two buildings of the Honey Grove Cotton Oil company and several small residences and structures lay in ruins today after a fire which threatened the city. The fire began yesterday in the seed house of the oil company and spread across the street to the hull house. High wind carried bits of burning wood afar, and a general conflagration appeared imminent.

All the fire fighting equipment in the city was rushed to the scene and assistance came from Paris and Bonham.

From the hull house the flames jumped to a number of negro dwellings and the cars, as well as railroad track scales, were destroyed.

Other buildings burned included a residence owned by E. Neal and a barn filled with hay owned by J. H. Donaldson, both several blocks from the scene of the first fire. Roofs of other structures were ignited, but flames on them were extinguished.

Loss of the mill was estimated at $100,000 and to the Santa Fe railroad at $20,000. Other buildings were valued at about $5,000.

QUICK COMFORT FOR STOMACH ILLS IN DIAPEPSIN!

"I am eager to tell others about my experience with Pape's Diapepsin," says Mrs. E. L. Lowry, 3253 Nathan Ave., Memphis, Tenn. "I tried a lot of things for indigestion, but nothing really helped until a friend persuaded me to take a few tablets of this wonderful preparation."

"Now I even eat onions without any distress afterwards. They used to cause real suffering. I do not suffer from heartburn or headaches, now; I feel much stronger and better."

A medicine must have real merit to bring forth enthusiastic statements like this. And when not one, but hundreds, even thousands, are telling the same story of success, there seems no reason to doubt the day-in and day-out reliability of Pape's Diapepsin to help stomach sufferers.

These harmless, candy-like tablets, which relieve the heartburn, gas, belching, headaches, nausea, dizziness, and other symptoms of indigestion or "acid-dyspepsia" so pleasantly and quickly, are swiftly becoming the world's most popular remedy for digestive ills. Millions of boxes are used yearly. All drugstores sell them. If you prefer to try them before buying, write "Pape's Diapepsin," Wheeling, W. Va., and you will receive a sample box, FREE.

BETTER NOT SAY IT.

Bad news travels faster than good news. There is an old saying, "No news is good news." Let a man be converted at a church service and there is not much of a stir, but let a resident be convicted of crime and the news leaps by word of mouth from one end of the community to the other.

How thoughtlessly unkind we sometimes are when acquaintances of ours suffer misfortune! Troubles are bound to come to us all in some shape or form, and what we say about others to day may apply to us tomorrow. News is no respecter of persons.

We are prone to consider the ways of others not our ways when we should be watching our own step. What folks say of one another sometimes hurts more than anything they could have done. News, either good or bad, grows and becomes exaggerated and distorted with peddling. When the news is good it makes no material difference how it is exaggerated or distorted—it can never do anyone positive harm. But bad news given wings, may bring sorrow and ruin upon people who certainly are not deserving of a punishment beyond the penalty of their mistake.

More charity for others will mean charity for ourselves and we will gradually come to take a keener delight in reporting something good of some person than something bad. Good is constructive, bad is destructive. Just before you are about to let out a bit of "bad news," stop and think a moment. See if you can't think of something good to say in place of it. The chances are ten to one that you can and that you will.

ICE CREAM FOR ALL.

Ice cream everywhere—in cones, in sandwiches, in chocolate coatings, in boxes, in "bridge packages," in burning dry ice, in purse-size portions in miniature freezers, in giant freezers for picnics, in ice cream palaces and pushcarts. Everybody eats ice cream today, and if it is a luxury to the poor it is one of those luxuries daily indulged in.

Only a little while ago this real world of ice cream would have seemed an Elysian fancy. Rare and uncertain, occurring only on hot holidays and at weddings and church festivals, ice cream was as ambrosia then. The cool, refreshing name alone was a pleasure to tongues which could seldom luxuriate in the reality.

Ice cream in the domestic stage of its evolution was never a matter of caprice. Forethought was essential, and physical exertion. There were the extra milk and other ingredients to be purchased and ice to be dug from the sawdust in the family icehouse. And then followed the cooking of the custard and the pounding of the ice and cranking of the freezer.

In those days of home manufacture and seasonal drug store dispensing ice cream was truly appreciated. That reward of licking off the paddle after the slow, weary yet thrilling revolutions was worth almost any travail.

JUST FOLKS

FATHER THOUGHT

I would not at your laughter frown
Nor try to cry your pleasure down:
Nor hint that mirth is wrong;
But as you laugh and as you dance,
Against life's every circumstance
I hope to have you strong.

This pleasure when you love so much
Will vanish at the slightest touch
Of shame or loss or pain.
When come life's sterner tests to you,
It will not stay to see you through
Or at your side remain.

So fine the line 'twixt wrong and right,
So great the cost of follies slight,
So cruel is the throng
That all who would outlast life's mirth
And end in peace their days on earth
Must build foundations strong.

Be happy every hour you can.
But play the woman and the man:
Hold fast to all that's best.
My prayer is this: When comes the strain
You will have the courage for your pain
And strength for every test.

PROVINCIALISM.

If the present trend of events continues, there will be no provincialism left in the United States. Isolation is what makes people provincial, and isolation is rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

The telephone was the first medium to connect far-flung districts with the life of the cities. The automobile next furnished a means of rapid and convenient transit. Now the city has been brought to the small town by means of the radio. When Prairie Depot, Ohio, can listen in on concerts as far west as Atlanta, as far south as Kansas City, then that town partakes in a measure of the characteristics of the cities. They have something in common together.

The great national roads form another de-provincializing element. A sparsely settled district, however far it may be from the larger centers, cannot grow self-centered and peculiar when cars from ten different states pass through the town every day.

In fact the danger lies in the opposite direction. Towns tend to grow rather too much alike. Without labels, it is different for a stranger within a diameter of 500 miles to be able to distinguish one town from another. Town spirit is also becoming more difficult to foster. Communication and easy travel have brought this about. There may come a time when the people of this country have extended their travels around the globe so widely that they will not appear even so distinctly American.

MOUNTING TRAFFIC TOLL.

Millions fear to venture into the skies because of the apparent dangers of flying, yet few avoid the highways because of dread that is produced in them by the knowledge that 1,000,000 persons are killed or injured each year in motor accidents. Reliable statistics in this field are unobtainable, but there are many who believe the traveler is just as safe in an airplane as in an automobile. At the rate that has been maintained this far, there will be about 36,000 deaths from auto accidents in 1930. There were 33,060 deaths last year, and 26,348 in 1928.

Nor is this alarming increase merely keeping pace with the rise in motor vehicle registration. Fatalities have multiplied more rapidly than the instruments causing them. Moreover, the national population is not climbing as rapidly as a percentage basis as highway fatalities.

Last year's figures were keenly disappointing for much work was done that year in making the roads safer and in educating the public in highway safety rules. With an estimated increase in deaths of 3,000 this year, or 50 per cent less than the 1929 increase, the country can feel that it has made some gains.

It is difficult for the average motorist and pedestrian to understand why the toll continues to grow in spite of the fact that the risks of the road are recognized as one of the most serious and immediate of public problems and in spite of improvements in roads, cars and traffic control methods. That is what disturbs them.

THE END OF THE TRAILS?

EVOLUTION OF COMMERCE.

In the days of the wind-jammer the skipper of a merchant ship was more than a sailor; he was a trader, and the field of his operations was the seven seas. The owners of the clipper ships that sailed from American ports to the Gold Coast of Africa or to the ports of the Far East could never be certain of the character of the cargoes which their shipmaster would bring back to the home port. They might be slaves or spices.

The laying of cables changed all that, and the click of the Morse code kept the master and owner in touch. This made possible placing orders with trading vessels anchored in faraway ports.

A few months ago still further advance was made possible by the development of transoceanic telephone communication. American exporters now use the telephone to trade with European buyers and sellers. Groceries are being bought and sold across the Atlantic by telephone.

This is hastening the passing of those picturesque craft, the tramp steamers. It is also having its effect on world markets and the world's way of doing business.

MINORITY CANDIDATE.

Two things have made Illinois notorious, Chicago, and a legislature which preserves for half its people three-quarters of the representation and makes possible a mob of independent candidates for major offices.

While the Illinois primary determines the official candidate of a party, an independent candidate may be nominated by petitions signed by only a few hundred voters. It is absurd that a self-called candidate can get his name on the ballot in a state as populous as Illinois by a petition containing only a thousand signatures.

Silly laws make for silly results. A silly law is responsible for the silly, yet dangerous, situation of four independent candidates opposing Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, the Republican nominee, and former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, the Democratic nominee, for United States senator from Illinois. It defeats the very purpose of the primary and party systems, which is that the majorities in all parties shall choose their standard bearers at the primary election.

Six contestants in the Illinois senatorial race will confuse the electorate and may deny the state a representative who is the choice of the majority.

HOUSES.

American communities originally were cities of blocks of houses. In this respect they followed the European tradition. The advantages of the block plan cannot be denied. First of these, of course, is economy. The second is convenience. Houses which are built in groups enable more people to live in a given area and enable them also to keep closer to business places.

The constant struggle between real estate operators who want to erect block houses and the cottagers who want the character of their neighborhoods held inviolate is ample evidence of the fact that the cottage is not the ultimate solution.

Modern suburban developments are evidence of the desire of the people for more light, more air, more privacy, a bit of greenery and more beautiful surroundings.

Solution of this enigma is probably to be found in a new style of development. In some European cities, especially in North Germany and Holland, but also, to an extent, in England and Belgium, architects and builders, often working in conjunction with municipal authorities, have designed group houses which have charm and distinction, ample garden space, and all the conveniences which come from group living.

The plan makes it possible to produce at small cost a neighborhood which will be a source of delight not only to its lucky residents but to the whole community.

To illustrate how impoverished a vocabulary may become, a popular writer in a current weekly mentions the "aroma" of a five-cent cigar.

ADVERTISING AND GOOD WILL.

What is that guardian angel that protects the international boundary between the United States and Canada from the usual jealousies and suspicions of neighbors.

Is it that considerable portion of good will which exists between the two countries? Largely. We feel as if the dominion to the North is part of us and Canadians have a similar feeling for America. Canada is the last country in the world that the United States would want to quarrel with.

Some think the protector of that border is business, for the two American powers have common business interests. Canada is in the lead among the nations in both export and import business with the United States.

These extensive business relations are due to proximity and a similarity in habits and interests. But an important factor in promoting them is the free exchange of periodical literature across the international line.

Newspapers and magazines published in the United States constantly pour into Canada, and dominion publications find a wide circulation on this side of the border. All contain advertisements, and newspaper and magazine advertising sells goods. The so-called national advertising in publications is really international advertising.

So advertising is contributing to that unbroken peace that is the marvel of the world and of all time.

HIGH OFFICIALS OF WESTERN MARYLAND ROAD IN SHOOTING

PRESIDENT IS DEAD AND VICE PRESIDENT IN SERIOUS CONDITION

BALTIMORE, Sept. 23.—(P)—Maxwell C. Byers, president of the Western Maryland Railway company, was shot to death, and Dudley G. Gray, vice-president, was fatally wounded in the office of Byers at the railroad company's headquarters here today.

Gray died four hours after the shooting. The only statement he made was in response to a question from a clerk in the railroad general office. "I broke into the locked office of the president after ten or more shots were fired."

"Who did the shooting?" he was asked.
"That's obvious," he muttered, and then lapsed into unconsciousness.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 23.—(P)—Maxwell C. Byers, president of the Western Maryland Railway company, was found shot to death and Dudley G. Gray, vice-president seriously wounded, in the railway executive offices today, shortly after employees heard sound of firing.

The doors of the president's office were locked. Police advanced a tentative theory of murder and suicide after discarding the initial explanation that the two had locked themselves in the room and engaged in a gun battle.

On the floor were found both men, Byers dead from a bullet wound through the heart and Gray unconscious from one bullet wound in the back and one in the chest. Two other superficial wounds were on Byers' body. Death apparently was instantaneous from the heart wound.

On the floor beside Gray was an automatic pistol with five exploded shells.

A clerk was taken to a hospital suffering from severe cuts received when he broke the glass of a door to gain entrance to the executive office. Sight of him with blood streaming from his arm at first led to the report that a third man had been involved in the shooting.

This theory was dispelled with the arrival of Patrolman Arthur H. Block, who forced one door and found others into the office locked.

At Odds Over Litigation.
Detectives said they learned the two had been at odds over litigation in which the company was engaged.

Gray was rushed to a hospital and placed immediately on an operating table in an effort to save his life after last rites had been performed by a priest. Physicians held little hope the vice president could recover, the two bullets having passed dangerously close to his heart.

The police made some effort at the hospital to question the wounded survivor but he was still semi-conscious.

Magistrate James P. Cadden, hastened to the nearby Mercy Hospital where Gray was taken to be on hand for a deposition, but the vice president was too weak to talk. The hospital attendants administered oxygen in an endeavor to

Opening Pursley Schools Postponed To October 6th

The opening of the Pursley schools, which was previously announced for Sept. 29, has been postponed until Oct. 6, it was announced by D. C. Stanley, principal, Tuesday. The reason given for the extension was that cotton is not thoroughly picked in that community, and many children would not be able to attend school until the latter date.

The Pursley school, which ranges in grades from the first through sophomore high school work, is stated to be in good repair, and it is expected to care for about 240 students, according to the scholastic enrollment. A seven months' term is run in the Pursley school.

New teachers this year include: Eugene B. Fincher, West Station, Texas; Miss Elouisa Horn, Navarro; Mrs. Gladys Granberry, Anderson, Pursley, and Miss Smotherman, Streetman.

NEW COUNTY HOME AGENT IS VISITING CLUBS OF COUNTY

BEAUTIFICATION OF HOME SURROUNDINGS STRESSED BY MISS SOWELL

Miss Jane Sowell, who recently began her work as Navarro county home demonstration agent, is holding initial meetings with the various women's demonstration clubs in the county. The yard improvement work is being discussed, including (1) General layout of farm grounds for convenience and order. (2) General principals of attractive planting. (3) Available native trees, shrubs and flowers. (4) Value of pecan as an ornamental tree. (5) Soil preparation needed in advance of planting. The club in this county have an enrollment of more than 200. Miss Sowell desires that each of the women in the clubs plant a few trees about the houses, a few shrubs to soften the base of the house, and tie it to the landscape with some vines and shrubs to screen outbuildings; a lawn to give a spacious setting; some flowers to give bright patches of color, etc. It is also suggested that a few walks be built and the houses be underpinned, and some of the worn furniture discarded.

SPREAD OF PLAGUE OVER NORTH CHINA IS CAUSING WORRY

PEIPING, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Serious spread of both bubonic and pneumonic plague throughout North China is causing some apprehension in medical circles here. A telegram today from Elmer W. Galt, of the American Board Mission Hospital at Fenchow, Shansi, said that unless authorities took some decisive action, Northern China, already famine stricken, was threatened by the disease. Trained investigators attached to the hospital found that the plague in both its forms started about two months ago and spread rapidly, wiping out entire villages. The panic-stricken people are fleeing from areas near the scenes of the heavy death tolls leaving piles of corpses unburied. The villagers are surreptitiously observing New Year's rites, with the hope of influencing the spirits to cease the scourge. Seriousness of the menace is accentuated by the fact that there is not a single modern hospital in the affected region and scarcely a doctor with modern training. The Fenchow hospital had sent a small nursing unit to assist in prevention measures but energetic government effort is necessary to localize the epidemic, Galt says.

Safe Stolen From Kerens Theatre Found Near Trinity River

KERENS, Sept. 25.—(Spl)—The safe stolen from the Iris theatre here was found by Officers Burleson and Holloway about one-half mile west of the Trinity river on the Athens road. The safe had been torn up and ransacked. The officers say the tracks of a car were plainly visible where it was found. They carried it to Corsicana to be photographed for finger prints.

NO RUPTURE SEEN IN INTERRUPTION NAVAL CONFERENCE

PARIS, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Interruption of negotiations between the French and Italians in Geneva concerning naval armaments is regarded in French circles as not amounting to a rupture. Talks between experts it was said in official circles today, could not in any case have resulted in an agreement. The experts were expected merely to find a basis on which the governments could negotiate. The experts, having failed to find such a basis during their discussions at Geneva, the question will be taken up by the two governments. It was said there had been little expectation in Paris that much would be done at Geneva. Both in Paris and Rome the situation was regarded as impossible for the moment because France cannot consent to full parity while Premier Mussolini's prestige is so engaged that he cannot abandon his demand for it now. After the lapse of a little more time with possible changes in the general situation, it is hoped here that a compromise may be reached. It was indicated that the French were quite willing to consent to full parity for Italy in the Mediterranean, but the official feeling is that no government could consent to reduction of the fleet so that the Italians could overwhelm any force the French could assemble in those waters.

Sugar Cane Growers Threaten Truck Use Unless Rates Cut

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Sugar growers of Louisiana at a hearing before the Louisiana public service commission threatened today to use fleets of motor trucks to haul sugar cane from the fields to refineries unless railroads agree to reduce rates on raw sugar. The reduction was opposed by the representatives of the Texas and Pacific and the Southern Pacific lines. Representatives of the New Orleans joint traffic association, the New Orleans Sugar Exchange and the American Sugar Cane League appeared as witnesses in favor of reduced rates.

It is said that influential members of the senate desire to eliminate from Mexico's foreign service all men who had served under President Huerta or who do not hold revolutionary ideals.

GIRL CAPTURED NOTED CRIMINAL SINGLE HANDED

SYDNEY, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Jewell Ferguson, 18 year old daughter of Sergeant Ferguson, a leading Sydney police official, is to be 1-warded by the government for making one of the most sensational civilian arrests for many years. Single-handed she marched a desperate criminal, for whom police had been searching the whole state, to the lock-up.

Miss Ferguson arrived home from a dance and, hearing a noise in her father's study, crept down the hall and saw the criminal perusing her father's papers and confidential police records. Without alarming the stooping man she reached upward where some of her father's hunting trophies were hanging and took down a long-handled wild pig dagger. Pricking her captive in the back from time to time to prevent him turning round she marched him to the watch house with his hands stretched above his head.

POURING CONCRETE ON HIGHWAY NO. 75 OUT OF RICHLAND

Approximately 2000 feet of 20-foot concrete has been poured on the highway 75 north of Richland, according to an announcement made by J. W. Alger, resident state pouring of this slab started a few days ago.

The spreading of the four miles of gravel on the Corsicana-Emhouse lateral road is expected to get under way at once by the state highway department. The gravel had not arrived late Wednesday, but is being expected daily. The state highway department is to put down this four miles of gravel as the road is to be used as a detour for the traffic on highway 75 until the main highway north of Corsicana via Rice is completed sometime next year. The completion of the Emhouse-Corsicana road will give an all-weather road northward. It is expected that the gap in the 18-foot concrete pavement in the vicinity of Briar creek will be completed early next week if weather conditions do not interfere.

One of the greatest of spoken dramas that has ever been presented before an American audience is the Passion Play as presented by the German players from Freiburg in Baden. Its scenic splendor, massive dignity and beauty are beyond description in mere words. It tells the ever new story of the passion from the first entrance of "The Christ" into Jerusalem until His resurrection from the dead.

The character of "The Christ" is played by Georg Fassnacht, Jr., and his interpretation of the role is such that arouses the deepest sympathy of the entire audience. The role of "Judas" is portrayed by Georg Fassnacht, Sr.

It is unusual in the drama world to have two characters so diametrically opposite as are those portrayed by father and son. One, the enactment of Christ betrayed and the other that of "Judas" the betrayer.

During the past season this company has been touring the principal cities of America, giving the people a real and graphic picture of the last days of "The Christ" on earth. A pageant that invites every religion and creed, a spectacle that impresses the observer with the deep religion of this great spoken and majestic drama. The Freiburg version of the play has always been spoken in German but on the present tour it will be spoken in English for the first time.

The purpose of the Passion Play is to visualize the real meaning of Jesus Christ to the world. While it is the drama of dramas, its purpose is not mere entertainment. This dramatization was made centuries ago from the Bible. A study of the Gospels will assist one to secure a deeper meaning of the play. The production is colossal and in many of the scenes hundreds of people are involved. No expense has been spared to make it the greatest production of this story ever given in America. Complete reverence for the subject is maintained throughout. The simple story of Christ is given with offense to no sect or creed.

The Passion Play will be presented in the High school auditorium on Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 29-30, with matinee Tuesday, under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion.

IN MEMORY OF GRANNIE HUITT.

On Tuesday, Sept. 16, the death angel visited the Huitt home and took a very treasured member to rest. One who was loved by every one. One that will especially be missed by the Woodmen Circle, Violet Grove, No. 49. Even though her health has not permitted her to attend for several months, we still have a memory of the many days when Grannie was present every meeting day. Our hearts, in tender sympathy, goes out to each member of the family.

"In our Woodmen Circle there is a vacant chair
And how we miss a long loved member there,
But God knew best and called her on to rest.
We realize our loss is Heaven's gain.

And that she knows no more earthly pain.
Even though the Woodmen Circle has lost a light,
In Heaven there's a new star tonight.

Weep not dear loved ones
Our circle realizes your pain,
But our hopes for her recovery was all in vain.

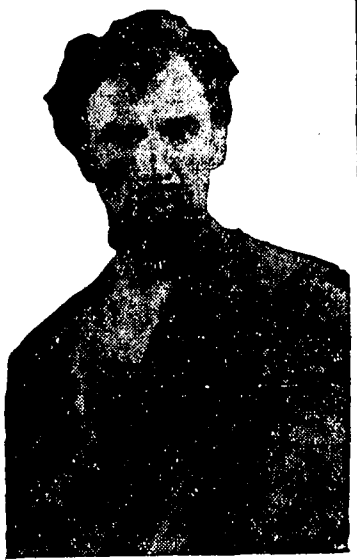

Now that she is at rest
And her earthly pains are no more
Let our worldly prayers be
That we too shall meet her on that golden shore."

G. O. P. NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS WITHDraws

DALLAS, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Dr. George C. Butte of Austin, republican nominee for governor, today withdrew as a candidate in a letter to the state executive committee, meeting in special session here.

Dr. Butte, now in Washington, where he is serving as a special assistant to the solicitor general of the United States, in a letter to the committee, revealed that he had tendered his resignation as the party nominee prior to the republican state convention in San Angelo, but that it was not accepted.

He said he was "thoroughly convinced" that I am not the logical candidate.

Dr. Butte was the Republican nominee for governor in 1924 when Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, the Democratic nominee, was elected in spite of a sizeable revolt within the Democratic party. He was nominated in the Republican primary last July when the Democrats reduced their 11 man field to a choice between Mrs. Ferguson and Ross S. Sterling of Houston. Sterling winning the nomination in the August run-off.

Dr. Butte said in his letter that he resigned the nomination "with the sincere conviction that a more effective candidate is available."

Immediately after Dr. Butte's telegram of withdrawal had been read the G. O. P. leaders went into executive session to choose a successor. They also had to select nominees for attorney general, railroad commissioner, lieutenant governor and comptroller as the primary nominees for those offices had declined to make the races.

EX-CONVICT CONFESSES TO ASSAULTING AND SLAYING OF LITTLE SOUTH BEND GIRL

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 23.—(AP)—George Sherman Myers, 40-year-old ex-convict, was held under close guard at Michigan City, Ind., prison today for the kidnapping and slaying August 27, of 8-year-old Marverine Appel.

Authorities here said that Myers made two complete confessions of the assault and slaying, one to prosecutors who questioned him repeatedly following his arrest last Saturday, and another to Sheriff Thomas A. Goodrick. If convicted, Myers will face the death penalty.

Because of fear of mob violence, authorities issued denials of the confessions when word of Myers' admissions first got abroad. Then Myers was rushed by automobile to the state prison, with shotgun squads preceding and following his car, as a precaution to insure his safety.

Later it was learned that Myers had been trapped in conflicting statements and officers said he had suddenly broken down and dictated the confessions.

Walking from his own home four miles, Myers admitted often passing the Appel residence, officers said, making the acquaintance of the girl. He stopped to talk to her on the night of August 27, officers said, and lured her to the barn where she was strangled with a piece of wire, because his confessions said, he feared exposure if she left the barn alive.

He decided the next day, according to his confession, that he would be safer if the body were discovered at once so he returned to the barn. Then, according to his admissions, he carried the body down an alley and left it where the first passing motorist would discover it.

The brutality of the crime aroused South Bend and a frantic search for clues was conducted. Jack Stamper, formerly a roomer at the Appel home was arrested but no evidence was produced against him. Several days after the slaying the authorities found the place where the little girl had been held captive and slain—in the loft of an unused barn. Constable Surp caught his hunt for the unidentified "George" until Myers was located.

Myers, according to officers, was married once but divorced. His blood relatives were adopted by another family. He had been employed on odd jobs here recently.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS GIVEN CREDIT FOR INSURANCE SAVING

Through the co-operation of the Corsicana public schools, the city is giving a 3 per cent credit key rate on all fire insurance policies. Superintendent H. D. Fillers announced Wednesday, in telling how annual Fire Prevention Week, beginning Oct. 5, will be observed in the Corsicana public schools. According to the superintendent the observance of Fire Prevention Week in the schools for the past few years has saved, in the form of a rate reduction, several thousand dollars for the citizens.

Among the means of observing the event this year are fire drills; discussions of means of fire prevention; and themes dealing with some phase of the subject. Playlets delineating best methods of fire prevention and pointing out the danger of fires will be dramatized, and children will make inspections of their own homes and communities to abolish fire hazards, Mr. Fillers stated.

the state with means prescribed by the constitution. The constitution, however, prescribed only the method and not the final end. We will make our party the decisive factor by means of the law making bodies but at the moment that our party has the power we will mould the state in the form that we consider the right one.

New German State Aim
Hitler, whose fascist party made heavy gains in the recent German elections expounded in detail the aim of his party to create a new German state, not by armed revolt but by bloodless constitutional revolution. He cited Mussolini's recreation of Italy as an example of the peaceful re-formation of a nation in the flame of reborn national consciousness.

Cheered by a large throng of fascists as he entered the building, Hitler still could hear his followers cheering and singing as he began his testimony, while inside there was a tendency in the crowded courtroom to applaud him which was sternly repressed by the judge, who remarked: "This is no theatre."

Hitler technically was called in to court as a defense witness for three Reichswehr officers charged with high treason, but extraordinary interest was aroused because it gave him opportunity to state the whole fascist case before a listening Germany and world.

Again and again he stated with emphasis and emotion that he was planning no armed revolt. "We don't need an armed revolt," he said, "all we need is another election."

The sole purpose of the fascist "Sturmabteilung" (storm division), Hitler said, was to protect the fascist movement against terrorist tactics of its opponents and it was never intended to be used against the armed forces of the republic.

That blood may flow once the Hitlerites are in power was admitted by the fascist chief who declared passionately: "Whenever my party, by legal means shall have seized power, then there will also be constituted a new German supreme court, November, 1918, will then find its expiration and heads will then roll."

Asked why he spoke of revolution so often, Hitler replied: "What other name can we give a movement which aims to overthrow the present state and construct a new Germany on entirely new lines?"

Firemen turned their hose on the followers of Hitler to drive them from the square before the supreme court building.

As the morning progressed the Hitlerites filled the square and their shouts of "Deutschland, Erwache!" ("Germany, Awake!") grew louder. Many women in the crowd became hysterical. Police were unable to drive the people from the square, but the cold water from the fire hose had the desired effect.

ADVERSE REPORT ON MISSOURI PACIFIC SANTA FE PROJECT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The interstate commerce commission today received an adverse report from one of its examiners on the proposed project of the Missouri Pacific and Santa Fe railroad system to extend their service by new railroad construction and purchase of existing lines into Port Arthur and Beaumont, Texas.

O. D. Weed, after investigation, said he could not find any urgent need for another line of railroad in the district. He found that "carriers now in the district are functioning well and seem to be serving the industries therein with reasonable expedition and in satisfactory manner." He advised dismissal of the petitions of the two trunk line carriers relating to the project.

The commission will give opportunity to all of parties to the proceedings for argument and presentation of further necessary evidence. Thereafter a final decision will be announced.

Under pending proposals the trunk lines would organize the Sabine Basin Railway which would buy the Eastern Texas Electric Company and thereafter build about 22 miles of line joining the Beaumont, Sour Lake & Western Railroad and Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe systems would thus acquire joint Fe system. The Missouri Pacific road & Gulf, Colorado and Santa ownership of a route into Port Arthur.

Weed held that Port Arthur now was being adequately served by the Kansas City Southern Railway, while another line now in receipt ship, the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity & Sabine railroad, holds permission of the commission to build into Port Arthur but has not yet exercised it. Weed held the railroad service now available for Port Arthur to be adequate.

RECOGNITION FOR SOVIET RUSSIA BY UNITED STATES APPEARS MORE REMOTE DAILY

By CHARLES P. WILLIAMSON
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Ever present as a possible change in American foreign policy, the question of recognition of the Soviet government by the United States appeared today to have been pushed further into the background than at any other time since President Hoover took office.

As enunciated by Charles Evans Hughes when secretary of state, the American policy with regard to the Soviets was that a settlement must be made of official and private obligations of Russia to the United States and its citizens and the Soviet must cease the spreading of propaganda designed to overthrow American institutions. This policy was continued as that of the Coolidge and Hoover administrations.

At the time President Hoover took office there was considerable speculation that the United States would recognize the Communist government.

Prominent writers even went so far as to predict that recognition would be extended within two years after inauguration day.

Two Countries Further Apart.
With the halfway mark of the Hoover administration term rapidly approaching, however, officials today remarked that the position of the two countries is probably further apart than at any period since 1922 when Ambassador Boris Baklanoff of the provisional government closed the old imperial embassy here.

During the past year, officials here remarked, there have been a steady procession of events which have tended to retard rather than help the cause of supporters of the Soviet in this country.

It was pointed out that the Soviet's reply to Secretary Stimson's plea for adherence to the principles of the Kellogg pact during the Chinese-Soviet difficulties was construed in high administration quarters as a distinct affront to the American government. In this instance, Secretary Stimson sought the co-operation of the signatories of the treaty to prevent what appeared to be imminent hostilities between the two countries. The Chinese government replied promptly with assurances while the Moscow government replied in what was considered by some officials to be a critical and almost satirical vein.

Non-Recognition Senate.
During the past 12 months publicity attending an investigation of Soviet propaganda and commercial activities in this country by a house committee of which Representative Fish, Republican, New York, is chairman, is considered by officials to have strengthened non-recognition sentiment.

Russian invasion of the American market with products ranging from matches to manganese has stirred much industrial and labor opposition to the Soviet regime this year, while recognition is considered by some here to have suffered in the furor over Russian speculative trading in the Chicago wheat pit.

The extent of Russian repudiated obligations to American citizens is estimated roughly at $400,000,000. There is also a $187,000,000 credit extended by the United States to the provisional government which followed the Czar and $36,000,000 of Russian bonds sold privately in this country.

QUESTION DEALING IN GRAIN FUTURES SUBJECT DISCUSSION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The whole question of dealing in grain futures was discussed at a conference here today between Secretaries Hyde and Lamont, Chairman League of the farm board and three members of the Chicago board of trade.

Silas H. Strawn, counsel for the Chicago board said after the conference that the board entertained a friendly and sympathetic consideration for the government in its efforts in dealing with the alleged selling of wheat by agencies of the Soviet government.

"There is not the slightest hostility between the board and the government," Mr. Strawn added. He would not go into details regarding the conference. Answering questions put by newspapermen, he said it was his personal opinion that the short selling of 7,500,000 bushels of wheat would not depress prices. This is the amount mentioned by Secretary Hyde as having been sold short on behalf of the Russian government in his charges that attempts to depress prices apparently were involved.

REWARD OFFERED FOR CIRCULATORS OF BANK RUMORS

RUN STARTED ON PINE BLUFF BANK AS RESULT CLOSING REPORTS

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Sept. 25.—(P)—A reward of $1,000 had been offered here today for knowledge of the identity of persons who yesterday circulated rumors that the Merchants and Planters Bank & Trust Company faced insolvency and would close, thus participating in a run on the bank.

Both officials of the Merchants & Planters Bank and of the A. B. Banks company, Little Rock, who own majority stock in the Pine institution, were at a loss to comprehend the reason or foundation of the rumor, which resulted in a run on the bank and withdrawal of approximately $50,000.

The bank remained open until late last night, tellers paying all who desired to withdraw their deposits. A reserve of $500,000 was brought here from Little Rock in the afternoon and excited depositors told that funds adequate to cover current deposits of $250,000 were on hand if needed.

The bank officials denied any intention of closing, and said it would open for business today, as usual.

Officers were continuing their investigation of seven telephone calls received by negroes here that the bank faced insolvency and would close its doors today. A negro was suspected, officers said.

Confusion concerning the use of the Pine Bluff company of Arkansas National Guard resulted last night from the offer of Captain R. W. Rowe to use of his men in assisting to police the bank locality.

It was reported Company I had been mobilized, but later it was learned the men had only been requested to stand by in case of attempted robbery or trouble during the excitement.

The remainder of his estate, of an unknown value, was left to three children in Tacoma, Wash.

DALLAS FAVORABLE TO BUILDING WEST TEXAS RAILROADS

DALLAS, Sept. 25.—(P)—Claiming that the South Plains section of West Texas is not now adequately served by existing railroad lines, the Dallas chamber of commerce yesterday mailed to the interstate commerce commission its petition for leave to intervene in behalf of the application of the Texas & Pacific Northern Railway, a Texas & Pacific subsidiary, to build 333 miles of railroad from the T. & P. main line at Big Spring to Amarillo.

Spreading out in three prongs, the extension would serve Amarillo, Lubbock, Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield, Dimmitt, Hereford and Vega.

The Dallas chamber also has filed with the I. C. C. a petition requesting a rehearing and re-argument on the application of the Abilene & Southern Railway, another T. & P. subsidiary, to build a line from Ballinger to San Angelo.

Division A. of the I. C. C. overruled the examiner's recommendation for this extension and denied the application. Present efforts are to have the entire commission consider the project further.

GETS SOMETHING EXTRA

TEAGUE, Sept. 25.—(Spl.)—When County School Superintendent W. F. Richardson recently bought him a new place and was cleaning up the land for a fall garden, in addition to the place, he discovered in an extra large corner post a swarm of bees. It is yet unknown as to the quantity of honey, but it is predicted that the post has a large hollow interior and that it is full of honey.

THREE DROWNED ON TRIP OF TRANSPORT PORTO RICAN WATERS

PANAMA CITY, Sept. 25.—(P)—Passengers on the United States transport Saint Mihel, bound for New York, told here today how three persons aboard the ship had been drowned shortly after the vessel left Porto Rico San Juan. Porto Rico to Cristobal.

Actions of an unnamed soldier led to suspicions of his sanity and he was thrown in the ship's brig. Later his reason apparently returned to him and he was released. He immediately went to the side of the ship and dived into the ocean and was not seen again.

The vessel stopped and circled the spot and some of its crew started to lower a boat. The davits jammed causing a small delay but eventually the craft was freed and it sped toward the water out of control. Three seamen plunged into the sea and two of them were drowned.

TEAGUE, Sept. 25.—(Spl.)—Cotton picking in Freestone county is scheduled on the decline. It is estimated that 70 per cent or more of the cotton has been picked. When Food Sours

Sweeten the stomach—instantly

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomach. This is called indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose later. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

MORE FEED CROPS THAN USUAL GROWN FREESTONE COUNTY

TEAGUE, Sept. 25.—(Spl.)—In line with the movement to grow more feed crops inaugurated last spring, more of the grain sorghums were grown in this territory than ever before. The grain sorghum family includes milo maize, kaffir corn, algerita, fetterita, danzo, he-earl, and a number of other related varieties. Many sandy land farms had from one to five acres of these crops, while some of the larger bottom lands farms had as much as 30 acres. The dry weather of the past summer and early fall were particularly suitable to the growing of these crops, which are ordinarily adapted to regions where the average rainfall is considerably lower than it is in this section. The average annual rain fall in this region is in the vicinity of 36 inches.

The two great enemies of the grain sorghums in this section are a very small insect, known as the midge, and birds. It has shown, however, that the grain sorghums can be grown with success in this section of the state, and when good conditions prevail yields are in excess of those obtained from corn.

ADAPTING A REFLEX.

"Get all you can; keep all you get," says Expediency. "With all this getting, get understanding," says Wisdom. We are born with the grab-and-hold reflex and we never lose it while life lasts. We are not born with full judgment as to what may be good to lay hold on. Trial and error, training and experience have their share in adapting the reflex to reality. Your baby, for example, utters a wail of protest as you try to take the scissors from him, or loosen his grasp on your string of beads. Very soon you learn that the reflex must be adapted, for his hands will not remain empty. Substitute a rattle for the beads and you save your own property, or for the scissors and you save the baby from bodily harm.

The baby's mind as well as his hand has a grab-and-hold reflex. "When I was a child I thought as a child. When I became a man I put away childish things." These words of Paul, and his thoroughgoing conversion in adult life show how his grab-and-hold reflex mental reflex underwent modification and adaptation. But there are minds about us on every hand that seem never to have put away childish things. The reflex shows born resistance toward giving up certain fondly held customs and beliefs, and toward yielding up certain so-called inalienable rights.

Just as a child may hold on to a sharp knife until he cuts himself, so does many an adult of this day hold on to his so-called right to get drunk if he pleases. With this argument he offers resistance to the paternal force that aims to protect his moral and physical well-being. Since holding on to his rights is a native reflex, we may not hope to annihilate it; but we may still hope to educate his choice in the matter so that he may make better adaptation. It is only the dull child who holds on to his own coat. Beliefs in like manner are often held onto, not for their intrinsic worth but because of this hold-fast reflex. "I've always voted my party's ticket and I see no reason for changing." "The old time religion is good enough for me." "New fangled business methods may be all right for the other fellow, but I'll stick to my own way of doing business, even if it leads to bankruptcy." And it does! There is a saying that the wise man changes his mind often, the fool never. The fool is the one who cannot learn to adapt his hold-fast reflex to changing times and conditions. Take the more or less simple love-reflex. The jealous wife, husband, or friend looks upon the loved one as something owned and to be held fast. But if the bond is to serve its purpose, it needs to be a blending of spirit, with full give and take.

There is a domestic situation in which the hold-fast reflex when unadapted works disaster. It is the clutch of the mother's hand on the son whose keeping should now be turned over to the girl-bride. This mother's hand in babyhood may well have yanked away at the necklace until the string broke and the beads went scattering about on the floor. Now, her mother-in-law interference, threatens to destroy the bond between her son and his bride and leave only the fragments of a ruined home in its wake. In handling the baby we tried to keep the necklace out of his reach, or, falling in that, we attracted his hold to something else. Nature in like manner tries to keep the mother from laying too firm a hold on her little son by pacing other children in the home, and by leaving the husband free to claim some of her interest. When the time comes for a mother to relinquish her loved son into the younger woman's ownership, it is a happy thing for her if she has her interests waiting at hand. Church, club and civic duties, garden tool, pen or embroidery needle must engage her time or she will languish. Every university professor should have an actively going hobby against the day when his hand must give over its accustomed work.

The hold-fast reflex is a boon one. See to it that you make sure in advance as to what your hand is to clasp down upon "for keeps." "With all this getting get understanding." (Tomorrow—Replies to Readers)

IF CARDS WIN AND CUBS LOSE RACE IN OLD LEAGUE OVER

CUBS ARE THREE GAMES BEHIND CARDS WITH FOUR GAMES EACH TO PLAY

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
The National league pennant race finally has arrived at the point where it may be settled in one day's play. St. Louis starts its final four game series against Pittsburgh and Chicago with the Cincinnati Reds.

If the league leading Cardinals can win today and the Reds can again assert the supremacy over the Cubs they have held all season, the race will be over. Today the two leaders stand this way:

Club	W	L	Pct	Games To
St. Louis	89	50	.442	4
Chicago	86	53	.415	4
Cincinnati	83	56	.396	3
Pittsburgh	80	59	.371	3
Cardinals	77	62	.354	3

The Pirates already have knocked the New York Giants out of the pennant race while the Cubs, easy victims in Cincinnati, have done somewhat better against the Reds in Chicago and can be counted on to show their best with the pennant at stake. Yet if St. Louis wins the best they can hope for is a tie while the Cards need but two victories in four games to clinch the title no matter what the Cubs do.

Rivals Clashed
The rivals of the two leaders clashed yesterday but without giving the fans much chance to see what they may do today. Rain interrupted the game several times and finally halted it in the sixth inning, bringing Pittsburgh a 5 to 1 victory. Pie Traynor's home run in the first inning sent the Pirates off to a lead that never was threatened as Larry French gave only five hits in the short game.

Brooklyn's floundering Robins dropped into fourth place as they lost to the last place Phillies. A successive first inning homers by Chuck Klein and Don Hurst as the starting point, the Phils continued to hit hard and won by 6 to 3. It was Brooklyn's seventh straight defeat and left the Robins a half game behind the New York Giants.

Klein's homer was his 40th of the season.

Another tail-ender, the Boston Red Sox, came out ahead in the only American league game, defeating the second place Washington Senators, 6 to 3.

Teague Lions Face Hard Week's Work

TEAGUE, Sept. 23.—(Sp.)—Coach Joe Dan Avinger is putting his Lions through a new more than thirty-five candidates through some grilling practice daily. The "easy stuff" has been done away with, and in line with the motto of "teach to do by doing" the team is learning real football by daily scrimmage battles.

If the men can't stand the "gaff" in scrimmage, surely they can't stand the "gaff" in a game. Coach Avinger is also using the scrimmage to enable him to pick out his first string material.

SPORT NOTES

By PAUL MOORE, LIGHT SPORTS EDITOR

Light workouts were the orders Thursday afternoon for the Corsicana high school mentors on the eve of strong games Friday. Coach Greenlee divides the list of the Greenville Lions who are intent on avenging their 15-6 defeat suffered on Tiger field last year. Greenville is reported to have a powerful, experienced, and changing eleven this season—intent on going some place in the interscholastic league in district 3. Corsicana did not have much competition against the weak Ennis Lions last Friday here, and the writer's can't see where the mentors of the Tiger team have anything yet to feel "swelled up" over. It would not be an upset of the dope for the Tiger club to kick the Lions over, and this thing will happen if the locals don't keep a sharp lookout.

Some of the players, listening to the words of a bunch of out-of-town sport writers, may think they are world beaters, and get beat.

Conscientious training is necessary in addition to a fighting spirit. The writer has been advised that some of the Tigers (thing the 1930 model club is already "in" the state championship running, which is a good way to get out of the running.

Corsicana will have an opportunity of really showing whether the team is a contender during the next couple of games against Greenville and Athens. Some of the Bengals are not training as they should, the gossip heard on the streets are correct, and if that is correct, those guilty are not being honest and frank with the school, those themselves.

Any football player who does not love the game enough to deny himself for the good of the team and its chances in the championship race, should turn his uniform in and quit the team. Corsicana has a great chance with the material on hand if the boys will give their every effort and ability.

Louisville, American Association champion, defeated Rochester, International league champion, 7-3, in the opening game of the Little World's Series in Rochester Wednesday.

Home run hitters Wednesday included Phil Phillips, Phil Phillips, Hurst, Philadelphia Phillies; and Traynor, Pittsburgh.

State Home and the I. O. O. F. Home clubs are playing conference games Friday afternoon, the State Home Lads meeting the Dawson Bulldogs in Dawson, and the Odd Fellows meeting the Ennis Lions in Ennis. This is the first district game for State Home and the second for the I. O. O. F. Lynx club.

The Odd Fellows defeated Malakoff 12-0 in a district 14 combat last week-end.

Fairfield Schools Drawing Students

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 23.—(Sp.)—Quarried in the new $35,000 school building which has just been completed, Fairfield schools are drawing students not only from the large consolidated district but transfer students from Steward's Mill, Pin Oak, Ward, and Young, Dew, Mt. Zion, Post Oak and other points. The white children of Burnet Chapel are being transferred to Fairfield.

School has been going on for a week in the new building, which has a large new auditorium in addition to class rooms. P. D. Browne, superintendent, hopes to increase the 14-2 units of affiliation this year.

GRADE CROSSING CRASH FATAL TO WOMAN, CHILDREN

EASTLAND, Sept. 23.—(P)—The mangled bodies of a young mother and three little children lay in a morgue today after death had struck them down at a railroad grade crossing near here.

Mrs. E. W. Halbert, 30, her children, Elbert, 9, and Clifton, 11, and Mary Louise Mitchell, 6, daughter of L. W. Mitchell, were killed yesterday when the automobile in which they were returning home from school was struck by Texas and Pacific passenger train, L. W. Mitchell, Jr., 9, was injured.

An eye witness said a string of oil tank cars obstructed the view of automobile driver at the crossing, about a mile from Eastland, and Mrs. Halbert drove slowly upon the tracks, seeing the approaching train, the witness said, Mrs. Halbert evidently killed the engine of the automobile.

Bodies of the victims were strewn along the track for 7 feet. The woman and the boy, little girl lived about 30 minutes.

Halbert is a pumper for the Transcontinental Oil Company, and with his family lived two miles from town. Mitchell is a mechanic.

The bodies of Mrs. Halbert and her two little sons were to be sent to Miami, their former home, for burial this afternoon and the body of the Mitchell child was to be buried here from the First Baptist church late today.

The Mitchell boy, only survivor of the wreck, was recovering in a local hospital. He said he did not see the train until it was upon the automobile.

"I opened the door and started to jump but I do not know whether I got out or not," he said.

Mrs. Halbert is survived by her husband and two sons, and the little Mitchell girl is survived by her parents and six brothers and sisters.

TWO CONFERENCE B GAMES CARDED; TIGERS VS. LIONS

LAST HARD PRACTICE SESSIONS WILL BE GIVEN WED- NESDAY AFTERNOON

Corsicana high school elevens will be given strenuous workouts Wednesday afternoon preparatory to their clashes Friday afternoon and only light workouts will be given Thursday afternoon. Corsicana Tigers, although somewhat crippled, should be in fine fettle for their invasion of Greenville where they clash with the strong Lions Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It will be remembered that the Tigers defeated the Lions, 15-6, in one of the best games played in Tiger field last season, and with a veteran club back reputed to be big, strong, and resourceful—the Greenville fans are expecting the Lions to secure revenge for their reversal on Tiger field, but the proteges of Johnny Pierce will have considerable to say about the outcome, and one of his bitterest season combats of the season is anticipated.

Corsicana fans are as equally certain that the Tigers will emerge from their invasion victorious as the Greenville fans are that the Tigers are to be punished.

Paul Hall, halfback, Joseph Bell, guard, and others are still on the injured list, but with the abundance of reserve available, Coaches Pierce and Ted Jeffries can put a real rub into the field.

State Home vs. Dawson.

The State Home Lads, smarting under their 44-0 lacing received last week at the hands of the Cleburne Yellow Packets, are snapping out of their workouts with a vengeance this week preparing for their invasion of Dawson Friday when they open their campaign to defend their district 14 championship of the past two seasons.

Attempting to forget their defeat of last week, the Lads are intent on repeating their last year's performance of district title winning, when they met the Dawson Bulldogs in a district combat. Little or nothing is known of the strength of the Bulldogs this season as the club has not played a game, but a good club is generally encountered in the West Navarro county area.

The State Home club is seriously handicapped by the absence of L. V. Knott, great hall carrying star who is out with a broken arm.

The I. O. O. F. Home Lynx club is in fine fettle and confident of socking the Ennis Lions in Ennis Friday afternoon in a district 14 battle. The Odd Fellows defeated the Malakoff Tigers 12-0, to open their first participation in District 14, and are intent on winning from the Ennis Lions to give them another victory in the district. This is the first season that the Odd Fellows have been members of the interscholastic league, being continued in former years to play outside the league.

Ennis, however, is smarting under the 71-0 lacing received at the hands of the Corsicana Tigers here last Friday, and prior to leaving on their return home, the Lions declared they would secure revenge on the Odd Fellows. This game in Ennis should prove to be a thrilling combat, and plenty of action should be noted. Ennis has been training hard this week for the game against this Corsicana representative.

Pierce Elated Over Action Of Douglas Taking Reserves

THREE PERSONS INJURED IN STORM EARLY TUESDAY

Coach John Pierce announced Wednesday morning that the reserves on the Corsicana high school football squad had been taken over by O. P. Douglas, basketball coach here for many years, and that this action was one of the best things that has been done for local football in years.

Coach Pierce was elated and declared that this would mean much better football material and training for the present season as well as being a great help in the development of material for future elevens.

There are about thirty-five boys in the reserves taken over by Douglas who will average about 160 pounds per man stripped. A number of hard games will be arranged for the reserves, including class B high schools and academics. Coach Pierce stated that Pierce was complimentary on the action of Douglas adding the coaching staff of the high school in taking over the reserves, and declared that "Douglas" taking over the reserves was just what we needed, and will be the biggest help imaginable to us."

The main squad will be drilled by Coach Pierce and Ted L. Jeffries, assistant mentor. There will be about twenty-five boys, averaging 170 pounds stripped.

Coach Pierce stated that the Tiger club was sorely crippled on the eve of the Greenville contest with Hall and Bell still on the injured list and with Stubbs crippled and Scoggins sick. The team will leave Corsicana Friday morning at 7 o'clock. Coach Pierce had not been advised of who will be the officials in Friday's game Wednesday morning.

SECRETARY HYDE LEADS VARIOUS RUSSIAN PROBES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—(P)—Three separate investigations of the Russian government's speculative wheat transactions in the Chicago pit sought fresh impetus today through the return to the capital of Secretary Hyde.

The department of agriculture was to push its survey of the Russian wheat operations in this country to cover all transactions, possibly extending back over a period of months.

The Chicago board of trade officials awaited Secretary Hyde's data before proceeding with their examination of the transactions.

Plans were all laid meanwhile for the investigation by the house communist committee, of which Representative Fish of New York is chairman.

In New York Saturday the committee will hear the officials of the all-Russia Textile syndicate which sold wheat short and representatives of New York brokerage houses which placed the orders. The following Monday the committee will sit in Chicago to question officers of the board of trade,
